Army Train Is Displayed to Edmonton Citizens

While in the city over the week end, L. Drouin of the Journal staff, was able to see the huge army train on exhibition to the citizens of Edmonton, Sunday night at the C.N.R. depot. The display was most difficult to approach and a cordon of soldiers and policemen kept the thousands of eager onlookers in restraint. This exhibition demonstrated what the manufacturers of Canada were doing towards the war effort. Among the exhibits we saw materialized war vehicles, Lewis machine guns, anti-aircraft batteries, wireless and radio sets, 4-inch guns, bombs, torpedoes, trenchlight, etc.

United Church Notes

Tuesday afternoon the W.A. of the United Church gave a farewell tea to Mrs. Heller, Sr. at the home of Mrs. Harvey Bennett and at the close Mrs. Martineau, secretary read an appreciative but regretful address wishing the departing lady happy in whatever activity in Canada she should enter and presented her with an appropriate gift. Mrs. Heller thanked the ladies in her own gracious manner and urged them to co-operate with the leaders of the young people. Therien News J. M. Dechene, M.P. Solicits "YES" Vote

A wedding ceremony was performed on Tuesday, April 13, by the Rev. Father Boudette of Alphonse Moyné and Rose Boudette of Galtville, Saskatchewan. A small number of guests enjoyed an evening celebrating the event with the happy couple. When the ceremony was over, the happy couple was presented with a real homecoming party. In April the Red Cross workers of Therien gave a dinner and sale of cooking at Anderson's store. From this sale they realized the sum of $75.00. We think those who donated toward the success of this effort with many buns, pastries, chicken salad, deviled eggs, etc. The sum of money collected goes into the Red Cross headquarters in Edmonton for the furtherance of the mighty work being done by this great cause. In the day of need let it be said — I helped write not as one who loves his fellow man.

Mr. and Mrs. Jean Mahe have left Therien to take up house and business in Medicine Hat. It is known about these parts to a fine young man and an excellent worker. We all wish them joy in whatever activity in Canada they should enter and presented her with an appropriate gift. Mrs. Heller thanked the ladies in her own gracious manner and urged them to co-operate with the leaders of the young people. Glendon News Favoring "Yes" Vote

On Monday, April 6, a number of motor car fires and some goods were stolen from our park in front of the hall where a dance was in progress. R. F. Kellner saw something burning on the back of a truck and as this aroused his suspicion he waited around and took the registration number of the vehicle. A number of fellows followed the car and located the foot caught in the brush near the road-side, west of Glendon. The police were notified and Const. Cummings and Trotter from St. Paul came to Glendon where information was laid before Magistrate Sherk, and a warrant issued. The driver of the car was arrested and taken to St. Paul by the police. His hearing will be held in St. Paul.

Friday night a farewell party was held in honor of Harold Kight who left to report for duty with the postal corps at Ottawa. Lunch was eaten and some money made by the sale of Mr. Sherk. Donating was then indulged in. During the latter Canadian soldiers should come back home; that the Anzac should return to Australia and the "Yes" vote New Zealand the Hindus in India, etc. in order to defend their respective countries. It is evident that Kight wants to think that he will be able to invade, conquer and subjugate each country as he goes. In other words, it is the theory of such people that the United nations should not hang together, but should hang separately.

Surely the intelligent people in Canada can see that our hope of winning this war is to make the main preparation to England for the grand drive on Germany.

Some religious bodies and also some fanatical people are against the joining of Canadian soldiers home because we might be invaded. They had better work us to the fact that if we do not drive the life of Kight to us across the sea from our shores, we will not only have to face and fight it, it is full food on Canadian soil.

In a world where public opinion and opinion is predominant, the spirit of selfishness is predominant.

Men and women of Canada vote "Yes" on April 27th. By so doing you will be adding your voice with hundreds of thousands of loyal fellow Canadians that, despite any pressures you may have against the administration, you are heartened per cent behind the government in its war effort for the preservation of their priceless possessions of power, liberty and the democratic way of life. Give your elected representatives a free hand to do whatever is necessary to win this victory is assured to us in peace, prosperity and security.

Dear Sir,

On the 27th of April, there will be a plebiscite as to whether or not the government will be able to put conscription for overseas service into force if it is deemed advisable to do so. It is deplorable that the present government could not see its way clear to put this measure into force irrespective of past promises in view of the world crisis that has developed.

It can be further said that no party should be so conscious for power as to make conscription for overseas service an issue in an election in order to secure or continue in office. It is an unfortunate part of the democratic system that the freedom loving people can vote themselves out of doing a job for their country which if not done may mean their own destruction. Some such thought Mr. Sherk. Donating was then indulged in. During the latter Canadian soldiers should come back home; that the Anzac should return to Australia and the "Yes" vote New Zealand the Hindus in India, etc. in order to defend their respective countries. It is evident that Kight wants to think that he will be able to invade, conquer and subjugate each country as he goes. Support King

I am unfortunately prevented by the grave illness of my wife from visiting the conscription issue. I regret this extremely.

The leaders of all political parties and groups, Liberals, Conservatives, C.C.F. and Social Credit are advising the electors of the Dominion to vote on the question of conscription on the ballot in the plebiscite, consistent with the conception issue. The Government has now the power to submit this question to Parliament, which has the right to accept or reject the issue. In view of the extremely critical situation of our relations with our allies, it has become evident to me that the Government must have the freedom of action and that we must place the fullest confidence in a leader. It is submitted by the great majority of the people that Mackenzie King is entitled to this confidence to a greater degree than any other leader in Canada. Les chefs de tous les partis politiques, Libéraux, Conservateurs, C.C.F. et Crédit Social, consistent aux électeurs de voter "OUI" à la question de conscription. Le Gouvernement a maintenant le pouvoir de soumettre cette question au Parlement, qui lui a le droit de l'accepter ou de la rejeter.

Si l'on considère la situation extrêmement critique de nos relations avec les nations alliées, il devient évident pour tout le monde que le Gouvernement Canadien doit avoir entière confiance en son chef. LET US GET THE VOTE OUT

It may be taken for granted that the majority of Western Farmers intend to vote "Yes" in the plebiscite on April 27th. They are determined to make the National War Effort fully effective; they realize that voting is a National duty.

But the supposition of the West will be fully satisfied only if every possible vote is polled. Get your own vote in and use that every qualified member of your household vote. Remind your friends of the vote and help neighbors get to the polls. Join in your Community Organization to get out the vote.

Then the voice of the West will be strongly heard as part of the national voice.

Various sections of northern Alberta the vital importance of securing a strong affirmative vote for this plebiscite. It has been directed by our executive to ask for the active support of the war finance committees in various centres. I believe that you have just completed the work of the second Victory Loan, and that this new request will make an additional drain on your time and energy. In view of the vital importance of this issue to the Canadian war effort, I do not hesitate to ask for your further assistance in connection with this important task.

Would it be possible for you to ask members of the war finance committee to meet at the earliest convenient date? It would be of definite value to you can add to your committee other influential persons who will be actively interested. May I suggest the following for consideration?

You arrange locally for someone to give a five minute talk at different meetings which may be held in your locality, prior to the vote, which will be taken on the 27th of April.

You contact the farm and other groups in your district and ask them to elect a member give support, both by word and by deed, to the campaign.

The support of the local church is enlisted, and that they be asked to deal effectively with the matter from the pulpit.

Let me assure you that the Northern Alberta Committee will be pleased to work with you in any way possible in promoting intelligent interest in the plebiscite and its ultimate effect, and in assisting as far as it is possible to do so, an overwhelming affirmative vote by the citizens of our part of the country.

Yours very truly,

Pity The Rich

Try as we may we cannot acquiesce a tear for those individuals who have to get along on $25,000 a year. If the proposals of President Roosevelt are put into effect, some people are putting up quite a story about the hardship that will ensue and the lack of initiative which will develop if salaries are cut to that level.

The same line of argument is being propounded elsewhere. We are not immune from it in Canada. Pity the poor rich!

It is true, of course that sufficient money would be forthcoming to yield large revenues for the government if salaries are taxed down to $25,000. But the psychological effect on the general public would be well worth while. People are demonstrating equality of sacrifice. It is much of a sacrifice for a man to be asked to get along on $25,000 a year?

The rich men are in a position to utilize the services of good propagandists. They can get up quite a story about how deserving he is and how generous should be rewarded. We have little patience with such a line of argument. Surely money should not be the only yardstick by which all services should be measured. Are there not such things as loyalty, a desire for service and a thrill of achievement in work and accomplishment?

In any event the wealthy people might just as well make up their minds that the era of knowledge of their attitude towards England and the Empire. They have no families of essential ties with the Empire. They have no feeling of loyalty to the Empire. They have no feeling of loyalty to the Empire. They have no feeling of loyalty to the Empire.

Should Attempt To Understand French-Canadians Says English-Canadian Writer

St. Paul, May 28.

It is with deep regret that I read the letter of the St. Paul Journal of May 28th.

The attitude expressed there in cannot be and will not be. It is with deep regret that I read the letter of the St. Paul Journal of May 28th.

At the outset it is well to remember that our two great racial groups have now lived side by side with a minimum of friction for nearly 200 years—a far larger example to the rest of the world than we have.

One of the first signs of bitterness among the French-Canadians is that they are not in the French in Canada enjoy special privileges. Surely the rights of language and religion should be freely granted to any democracy, but to the French-Canadians they are not.

Another cause of misunderstanding between ourselves and our French compatriots is a lack of knowledge of their attitude towards England and the Empire. They have no families of essential ties with the Empire. They have no feeling of loyalty to the Empire. They have no feeling of loyalty to the Empire.

Conscription Would Hinder War Effort—Que.

Prime Minister Macdonald told the Assembly that it is opposed to conscription for overseas service, because "I do not believe that it is the best way to win the war."

SABOTAGE UNIT

"French-Canadians do not believe that conscription is the best way of winning the war, and they showed it in the plebiscite. If conscription for overseas were imposed against the wishes of some it might mean the sabotaging of our national unity."

Debate was on a motion of Cyrille Dumais (Lab., Bagin) urging the House express the wish that the Federal government retain its voluntary enlistment policy and not impose conscription for overseas. An opposition amendment urged House members to express their opposition to conscription for overseas, but also that the government adopt the measures necessary to make Quebec's conscription resistance.

NO BETTER EFFORT

House members who have given a better effort than Cyrille Dumais, but we also believe that the effort produced by the people has been magnificent. But we also believe that conscription would hinder that effort. However, conscription will not be imposed in Ottawa. Premier Mackenzie King's supporter, Mr. St. Denis, if he is a man who is against conscription, he is not a man who is against conscription. As ever interpreted French-Canadian sentiment better than I.

DIPLOMA OF EFFORT

There is no difference of opinion on what kind of an effort should be made to win the war, but there are some who are against conscription for overseas and we must respect that opinion.

"Hill," he said altogether wrong in his estimate of the sort of democracies we have

Londoner Grate-ful To Receive St. Paul Journal
—V—

King's Road, London, July 25, 1942.
Editor, St. Paul Journal, St. Paul, Alberta.

In the midst of this terrible strife and struggle, we often feel rather depressed. A ray of sunshine entered into our life today — we received a copy of the St. Paul Journal, and your brilliant edition on the top of the page made me very nervous. It would indeed be a God-given privilege to live in your province. But since this is not possible for all of us, it is at any rate sometimes nice and pleasant to breathe a breath of fresh air and to feel a ray of sunshine, which was what your little Journal meant to us.

We have famous newspapers of our own which are undoubtedly very good. However, since reading your paper, we have been made to realize and feel that the simple things of life are a good neighbourhood still have a place in this strife-stricken world.

We would like to tell you that in our opinion, the St. Paul Journal is truly a newspaper, being forthright and honest in its opinions.

The paper I am reading is the issue of Friday, April 24, 1942 and I do hope that by now (page 1 col. 2) the Editor has completely recovered. I also trust that (page 1 Col. 2) "Canadian News" — Martin LaBrec, is still thriving well! We are of course sorry to have missed (page 1 Col. 2) the Old Time Show, as we are sure we would have had a marvelous time with all the lovely pictures (hundreds of them).

We trust that you will regard our letter in the spirit in which it is written — please do not think us fawning, but should you at any time want a London column written or news page over here, we should be pleased to oblige you with it.

In the meantime, we would very much like to be put on your list of subscribers and if you would write and tell us how much it is, we shall be pleased to send you the money for a year's subscription.

Incidentally, I have just had the pleasure of having my new gown for a few days, an old St. Paul boy, employed by your local drug store, his name is Jack Hopton. We have found him very charming and intelligent and we are sure that he has many friends in your town who will be pleased to know that he is in the best of health and spirits.

It is a pleasure to mention here that I have a sister and a brother-in-law in Elk Point, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hutter. Mr. Hutter is the station master, and if it is not imposing to too great an extent, I would very much like a greeting placed in your paper for myself to my relatives. Please also tell Mrs. Hutter that the wonderful fruit cake she sent at Christmas has won her positively almost national acclaim, at any rate as far as our office is concerned.

I trust that I may have the pleasure of hearing from you sometime.

Yours sincerely,
D. HAYMAK.
ED. NOTE: Thanks for the descriptive and flattering remarks and Martin Laroux's calves are OK and Martin is quite recovered.

Income Tax is Fair to All

In the fourth year of war, Canada will need almost four billion dollars. This is the equivalent of nearly $350 for every man, woman and child in the country.

Even with the highest income tax in history, 25% only of the money Canada needs will be raised by taxation. The rest will have to be borrowed by means of War Savings Bonds, Certificates and Victory Bonds.

Starting with the first pay period in September representing September earnings only, your employer is required by law to deduct your income tax from your wages or salary, and send it promptly to the Government. Everybody will pay his share as he goes along.

It's going to be tough... but not too tough! Here are some good features:

1. You will get a full refund of all tax paid on your wages or salary when you receive your income tax refund.

2. The National Defence Tax is already being paid by you in the form of a small deduction from your wages or salary.

3. The income tax rate on your wages or salary is only 25%.

4. The money you are paying for life insurance is not taxable.

5. The money you are paying for a pension fund is not taxable.

6. The money you are paying for a gratuity is not taxable.

7. The money you are paying for a bonus is not taxable.

8. The money you are paying for a dividend is not taxable.

9. The money you are paying for a capital gain is not taxable.

Store and Creamery

Origin of Grand Centre

A creamery and store started four miles south of Cold Lake in the bush country, Merry Teppenberg and Brady came from the then dried out parched prairie and built a creamery and a store. There was just a sprinkling of homesteaders and they were not too numerous. This was ten years ago or less, I believe. Young Teppenberg counted a few cows on the range — mostly wild cows or range — and of course were never killed. Felix Berlinguette of north-west of St. Paul milks almost all around Cold Lake. Indeed, the Cold Lake calves still serve cream from contented cows.

Encouragement of dairying was the creamery and the store was the key to prosperity they believed.

Frank Jacobson of Shumrock Valley said it got so dry in three years down south, they had to come north to get milk.

Others form the north came into the Grand Centre settlement and the creamery gave them milk and the store gave them the things they needed.

Now the creamery has just been sold to the fourth owner and makes 1,700 lbs. of butter in the morning.

There is a veritable village around the creamery and Brady's store — indeed there are other stores, two churches, a school, a garage, a hotel, and a cluster of buildings and school.

Tells of Butter Shortage There; Appreciate Gift-Tins From Can.

Letter from Dr. A. P. Thomas, 28 Marlborough Road, Edgbaston, Birmingham, England, to David G. B. Thomson, Alberta Provincial food inspector stationed at Cold Lake, Alberta.

My Dear David: You will be glad to know that the first tin of Alberta butter reached us safely yesterday. Our weekly allowance has been down to two of each, and we need for a long time to need tell you how welcome it was particularly as it was in such good condition. Peggy unfortunately was away for a week at our house in the country, but we have carefully not let her share in the refrigerator. You are not to imagine that we are starving because we only get two of each a week. In fact, we get another 6 oz. of fat as well in the shape of good margarine or cooking fat, but I will not deny that it is really pleasant to be able to make butter as we wanted for a meal.

Picture shows five-duff-covered minelayers pushing minelayers to the stern of the ship for laying.

Abominable Roads Merchants Are Suffering

St. Paul Sleeping Soundly

"TRIAL BY JURY"

The needs of trial by jury were planted in the dim and distant past by the founders of the English race in their homeland across the North sea, and the institution, in a very crude form it is true, was brought with them when they colonized Britain.

THE ST. PAUL JOURNAL

On Thursday morning I left St. Paul very early to go to St. Point and when I got to St. Point, Mr. A. T. Brown and the editor collected membership one last April for the Senior Chamber of Commerce by the name of the delinquent. We then promised our very generous and we'll have membership to have the road between St. Paul and St. Point maintained and possibly graded and we would give them the money. The road is now in a very poor state of repair and the market has been so bad that it would be in the council's power to do it.

Beef Prices Drop Again

Prices Determined

Fourth reduction in the wholesale price of beef came into effect on September 14, under order of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. New prices will apply to sales of beef across Canada between the dates

Alberta is within zone 1 except for a small sector of the province west of Lovett and Edmonton on the C.N.R. line and west of Banhead on the C.P.R. line which is zone 12. Additional costs of distribution makes prices slightly higher in the latter

Maximum prices for the sale of beef in each zone in Canada have been determined from a survey of the price range during the basic period. Consideration is given to all factors affecting the sale and distribution of beef in various sections of Canada at various seasons of the year.

To Produce Beet Sugar For Quebec

ST. HILAIRE, Quebec.—Construction is now in progress on the first beet sugar plant in the province of Quebec in this town and community meeting in the main hotel here.

Already two warehouses have been completed and it is expected that the plant, a municipal government project, will be in production in the fall of 1949. The work was undertaken by the local government, the 1941 session of the Quebec legislature authorizing the government to acquire the land and construct the plant.

At the time $150,000 was provided to start operations, later an additional $400,000 was used and last winter a further

Reduced Gasoline Rationing System

Reduction of the gasoline ration for car owners, affecting those whose cars are deemed to be in the non-essential category will take effect October 1.

A new order issued by Ottawa provides "A.C." category, for which the allowance of gasoline for light cars, 10 units to 40 gallons in the six months period ending March 31, 1949. This is a drop of nearly 30 per cent from the previous allowance of 60 units or 300 gallons a year, or 140 gallons for the six months period.

Officials of the Alberta Motor Association are giving close attention to the new order and making arrangements to ensure that full information is given to the motoring public.

It has been estimated that 25,000 motorists of this province will be affected. Those particularly affected are persons whose cars have been used for convenience or pleasure purposes, essential for business purposes. People who own two cars will have been using one solely for convenience or pleasure purposes. People who own two cars will have been using one solely for convenience or pleasure purposes.

A housewife normally would be placed in category "A.C.", but if it is found that she has a job to do in industry or in agriculture, she would be placed in category "A.C." and would be entitled to a more adequate means of public transportation, and is driving heavy equipment to work, she would be placed in category "A.C."

Within a few days, the regional oil controller's office at Edmonton will send out instructions to those who have been placed in category "A.C.", outlining in their old ration books so that they can be supplied with the new books.

Show Reduction Gasoline Sales

In the last four months period ended July 31, last, the sales of gasoline for motor vehicles including trucks in Alberta decreased approximately 23 per cent over the same period received by the Alberta Motor Association.

Total sales reported by the provincial secretary's department for the same period were $2,858,888, compared with $3,700,000 in the same period of the previous year.

The A.M.A. estimated the need of conserving not only gasoline but also rubber under tires and other motor vehicle parts largely for essential purposes as well as the sharing of car pools to effect savings in fuel consumption and wear on tires.

For instance, the gasoline sales for July amounted to 6,000,000 gallons, compared with 1,541,131 in the same month of 1947.

While conservation of gasoline has been brought about, that no doubt in large measure to regional rationing, much has been accomplished by the very hard work of it is believed by motor authorities that much more can be done along this line when there is a full revival of the national economy and heavy demands to supply Canada's war industries.

Highway 300 Miles; Pipe Line For Alaska Advocated By Explorer Stefansson

The following views by Vilhjalmur Stefansson, noted Arctic explorer and expert on northern affairs, are made from the Fortuna expedition and are representative of his own personal views on the subject.

NORTH from any U.S. or Canadian army or munition force, the shortest and safest route to the north is by the Arctic Ocean, Vilhjalmur Stefansson says in Fortuna magazine. The distance is 4,842 miles. Thus at 1,000 miles an hour, the trip would take 4.842 days.

But, you say, remembering your school maps, over the pole there is a shorter route. Mr. Stefansson says that if you were to fly from New York to Berlin you would fly over the North Pole. But you would fly over the North Pole. But you would fly over the North Pole.

But the North Pole is not a desert in the eyes of the world. It is a vast, open, and fertile land. It is a vast, open, and fertile land. It is a vast, open, and fertile land.

But the North Pole is not a desert in the eyes of the world. It is a vast, open, and fertile land. It is a vast, open, and fertile land. It is a vast, open, and fertile land.

THE WARTIME PRICES AND TRADE BOARD

St. Paul Co-operative Ass'n. Ltd.

This is presumably the last Christmas and the last New Year under the old order, but we hope that this coming year we will see the business fully recognized as business today. At present they are half out of conventional insurance, out of unemployment insurance, out of minimum wages, out of minimum hours of work, out of parity prices, and in a sense they are not even close to the rights granted soldiers, under the law for protection to civilians. Our good town of St. Paul on the 25th of December 1942 received their cattle and hogs but proceeded with these changes and looked at them on their economic association that wanted to shelter the farmers and move them on that day or to see how they would fit in the old industry weather.

We know that 1943 will see the day when the town will recognize that it owes its existence to the farm population. To advance this golden day we must get together more solidly and we must have a long fight. But to do it quickly and surely we can begin them by Co-operative farms and industries and that is the thought the Co-operative firms wish to leave for the coming year.

EFFECTIVE NOW BUTTER IS RATIONED BY COUPON

The ration is one-half pound of butter per person, per week.

On and after December 21st it is unlawful to sell or buy butter at retail without the surrender of the proper coupons.

Brown coupons, Nos. 1 to 11, "Spare C" from Ration Book Number 1 now in the hands of the public, are to be used for this purpose.

Black Brown coupons, Nos. 1 to 11, "Spare C" entitles the holder to buy one week's supply. Only Brown coupons, Nos. 1 to 11 "Spare C" can be used for the purchase of butter.

Each coupon becomes good on a definite date and expires on a definite date . . . and can be used only within the prescribed period to give below.

The system for butter is different from that applying to Sugar, Coffee and Tea, where coupons have no specified expiry date.

Dates When Butter Coupons Become Usable — and Expire

Coupons	Good for Purchase Expiring on	Not Good for Purchase After
1	December 21	January 2
2	December 28	January 9
3	January 4	January 17
5 and 6	January 18	January 31
7 and 8	February 1	February 14
9 and 10	February 15	February 28
11	March 1	March 14

Coupons for butter, like those for Sugar, Coffee and Tea (See red and green coupons) must be obtained by, or in the presence of any seller of butter or its coupons. If desired, consumers may lodge their butter coupon sheets with their retailers, on whom the latter may detach the required coupons when delivering.

Temporary Ration Cards

All Brown Coupons on Temporary Ration Cards issued to members of the armed forces on leave, visitors to Canada, etc., are good after December 31.

Butter Holdings Exceeding More Than One Pound per Person Must Be Reported and Coupons Surrendered

They must forward with their reports the number of butter coupons representing their butter holdings. If the quantity of butter in possession of such persons represents more than the eleven brown coupons in Ration Book No. 1, which will be good for butter, they must in their report undertake to detach from future ration books, additional butter coupons equal to the remainder of the surplus.

Special Notice to Rentiers

On and after December 28, rentiers must establish their right to purchase one supply of butter from their suppliers by turning over to the supplier currently valid ration coupons equivalent to the pounds of butter ordered from the supplier.

Brousseau & Foisy Likkered Up

Carries Sleight Powerful Goods

A remarkable true story was sent in from Brousseau that it of Foisy and Brousseau plans are preparing for the grand oldtime Christmas and New Year celebration in this country's history.

Not able to use their cars owing to there foot of snow and most of them have money to burn cutters and sleighs are filled with good things in set for the women and the kids. The powerful but stuff is reserved for the women who look off and shrouded the huge crop. When you get nearly $100 for hog and over $100 for sows you can appreciate how easy it is to get a crock or several or seven.

The story is told by means of a telegram that one man made himself a big haul and trudged to Two Hills and from there phoned or wired it friend at Wollington who sent the required wet-goods. It came by next train and the man did not open the bonded stuff but traded here and there from Two Hills and positively refused several rides to Lethbridge. Drops of brandy or rum are too valuable to be given away for a mere rate of about 15 cents. Said the fellow when offered a ride "No thanks, but I'll ride on the rear of your sleigh run." He jumped up and took the driver stop his horse. The Journal certainly wishes all success. Every people a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year on January 14 according to the Julian calendar.

The council has decided the important matter for nearly two hours at their Monday meeting and decided to buy all the wood that the people will be good enough to bring to town.

Town Fuel Situation Presents Difficulties

Alberta Fuel Controller Receives Numerous Imporing Telegrams

The coal and wood problem is becoming serious in the town and Mayor Hivon, when interviewed Tuesday by a Journal reporter.

Allen repeatedly warned by government officials last summer very few ordered coal when they could have had it so easily. Those who are in a position to do so are asked to bring to town all the wood they can and the town council will pay cash for every load that will be delivered. They will purchase any amount or cords of wood, any length, any size, green or dry.

We realize that it's a tough proposition to lay trees cut them up and lug them out of the bush but people will have to pay what the fuel will be. Those who bring loads will not have to wait on the streets. A lot is provided and a man will pay cash for all that will come to town.

Those who can't bring wood to St. Paul are asked to bring it as far as the highway and trucks will take it to town.

The hospital got a car recently but the Sisters had lent some of the industrial school and other places so that they now have not more than eight or ten tons, but the hospital needs a ton a day. We cannot close the hospital. It will be better to close the schools raised by Hivon.

The situation might become very serious if wood is not brought to town quickly as possible.

That's what members of the R.C.A.F. (Women's Division) will tell you after having spent some time at air force headquarters in Ottawa or at any air force station. Two things appeal to these air women. In the first place, they like serving in the same outfit as Canada's anti-aircraft gunners, and also they like the fact that so many interesting duties are offered in the air force.

If it had the people of Alberta, particularly in the northern parts, can't see more of these aircraftmen. The remark passed by an airman who spent her leave in Edmonton. And it is in fact that we have comparatively few air women have been posted to this area. In other parts of Canada and at air force schools they are a familiar sight as they go about their duties which include everything from cooking to the job of wireless up-tower ground.

Women between 18 and 41 who are interested in the air force can find out details of how to join and the trades that are available by either visiting the air force mobile unit when it is in their territory or by writing the R.C.A.F. (Women's Division), Edmonton, 1000-10th Avenue, Edmonton.

A few years ago Mr. Meunier had a leg amputated and later another and since that time had been totally helpless. Mr. Meunier died three years ago last October.

Will The States Take Canada?

By H. A. TRAXLER

Ever since the war started there has been a growing amount of newspaper space devoted to reports that the United States was about to take this country. We were to be absorbed or taken in payment for lease lend goods or perhaps allowed to enter the union on equal terms. Our provinces would become states and Alberta would be equal to Montana. A few months ago a reporter from Chicago came to St. Paul and talked to the people on the streets. He went home and wrote to his paper that the result of his interview in Canada was that the U.S. had no intention of joining the U.S. Last week an Edmonton paper printed an article by a university professor in New York with a suggestive headline: "United States should annex Canada." There is more news for U.S. on the CBC these days than there is for Canada. Recently we were treated to a talk about the American flag, how it had a stripe for every state. U.S. poor Canadians have no flag to put a stripe on for every province. All this may be hokey art then again it may not be. Where there is smoke there is fire. If we are being asked if we are going to give away or if we are going to try to protect us from Russia as the politicians suggest we should be, we have little to say and something to gain. The American people are better fed, housed and clothed than we are. Wars are twenty per cent off their price. The U.S. has a fifty per cent higher and finer machinery, guns and gasoline are a little more than half the price we pay in Canada.

True, we used to draw a barrel of the precious liquid sometimes over two miles and there was always a deposit of five cents in the bottom of the barrel, but we don't do that now. The barrel is empty. The conductor on the train that rammed the excursion train whereby 40 people were killed, left a note that he was not responsible but believed he might be held responsible and committed suicide.

14-Year-Old Girl Shot By Brother Near Here

Whole rushing through the house, twelve miles south of St. Paul, Peter Peterson, 12 years of age, accidentally shot and killed his 14-year-old sister when he tripped and the barrel discharged in the girl's face. The unfortunate fatally shot a gloom over the Orville school settlement, ten miles south of town. The Peterson family is a prosperous, highly respected and hard working family who came from near Provost about ten years ago and purchased land near their Johnson and Henry Railroad at Armistice.

CONVERSION SURPLUS WHEAT INTO ALCOHOL

ERECTION OF DISTILLERIES IN WEST PROPOSED BY LINE ELEVATORS

"Necessity of finding new sources from which to derive essential products for the protection of the independence of the industrial utilization of America's surplus wealth." The Allied nations have developed a new era of incessantly creating synthetic rubber and various forms of alcohol from products which readily lend themselves to the manufacture of explosives, according to a statement issued today by the North West Lake Governors Association.

It is now to be used in large quantities for manufacture of higher explosives on the broadest of a world-wide Argentine demand, it is the term of the last World War, and the world has been left with little or nothing from a country that was a necessity on the shores that have been produced in the world.

Expanded Markets in Solution

The position taken by the Lake Superior Association, president of the Lake Superior Association, is that the problem may lie in expanding as a market, having new and profitable markets, and what is necessary to have international relations.

synthetic rubber. Wheat also is particularly suited for conversion into explosives, chemicals and high test fuels. The U.S. Navy is studying the fighting planes and tankers," the statement continues.

"More than two and one half years ago the outbreak of war was declared. Commerce authorized, before the Turpin Royal Grace Inquiry Commission that the Government is determining the possibilities of finding additional sources for farm products. It is also the policy of the Commerce Administration, stated the production and plant quantities of wheat abroad. That is the policy of the War Relocation Authority, the War Relocation International exchange of goods, as soon as possible after the War, it is the real hope of the wheat farmers that every possible source of standing open for wheat not developed.

"Wheat farmers have not a definite of the Federal Government in relation to the wheat situation," said Wm. Ward, by N. A. is permitted to accept delivery of wheat principal rubber laboratories in the United States to make a report on the progress of the work on the farm products being utilized in industrial products. This report, which was made by Dr. D. H. Drayton, indicated a field for extensive use of wheat in manufacture of motor fuel. The Government was then authorized to conduct experimental work and to establish laboratories designed especially to conduct research into the use of wheat in the manufacture of motor fuel and other farm products.

It is most difficult to come into agreement as to how to solve the problem of the wheat farmer. It is true that an International Wheat Conference, in recent months, held a series of sessions in Washington, D. C., attended by representatives from Canada, Argentina, Britain, Australia and the United States. Certain conclusions were reached, to share into effect after the war.

Everyday we hear the plea for investing ten per cent of our income in War Savings Certificates. It's a good idea, but money go to this cause' if you had ten dollars you possibly couldn't use, would you rather throw it away or give it to the war effort? I'm referring to the four radio programs, namely 'Share the Wealth'.

The two former are Canadian and the extent of the savings is not large, but two hundred or so dollars a week could easily find its place in the war coffers. Take it or leave it, if all the contestants

Guidance Of Churchill

Mr. Churchill the other day remarked that the best way to insure against unemployment is to have no unemployment.

Which suggests that study as to how to amuse after-the-war for everybody is more important than study of the plan of social recovery in the immediate future.

At the same time Mr. Churchill made it clear that he believes in expansion of the economy schemes to avert a national disaster.

Mr. Churchill also said that he is confident that the division of funds himself, where many found themselves in the worst depression of the thirties.

No person with the slightest humanity, whether or not personally involved, could fail to be concerned over the plight of millions who are now in want of services and disbursements.

Even big business, which is accused of being heartless, would not object to the expenditure of the purpose of providing for the unemployed.

It is true that the cost of winning the war, the ability of the government to absorb the cost of the war, the ability of the government to absorb the cost of the war.

At the same time Mr. Churchill made it clear that he believes in expansion of the economy schemes to avert a national disaster.

File Tax Returns Without Delay

Support the department of national revenue in its present job of inducing more than two million Canadians to make their income tax returns before June 30, 1914.

The department is taking vigorous steps to encourage all taxpayers to meet this deadline. The work is being carried out by means of many thousands of letters, which are being sent out by mail, and by means of many thousands of visits to homes, which are being made by the department's inspectors.

It is urged that all taxpayers who have not yet made their returns should do so at once, as the department is unable to accept any more returns after June 30, 1914.

This year's round-up of income tax money is the simplest income tax form for those whose income is under $3,000. It is a simple form, and it is a form which enables the taxpayer to determine the amount of his tax at a glance. The department is urging all taxpayers to fill in this form, as it is the simplest and the most reliable way of determining the amount of their tax.

Salvation Army Is Asking $800,000

Marale is a lot of little things . . . mail from home when you're a thousand miles away . . . the memory of a pleasant leave for a serviceman . . . the knowledge that "home" will always be there when his ink is done . . .

For the boys at the front, morale means that folks back home are bending every effort, worried mothers the right to do her share in the country's war effort, by opening its doors to her children, by looking af-

Walking Boys Join Navy

Donald Guinop, Donald Laurie and Mike Pushkervani, have gone to Edmonton to enlist in the navy, to be followed when he gets through training by Robert Newby. The tragic loss of the "St. Cross" does not seem to have daunted these fine young farm boys & we wish them all good luck.

Provincial Agricultural Commission which met recently in Ottawa. Tens of thousands of young farmers are serving overseas during the first two years of the war when it was so vital that fighting weapons be supplied in ever increasing volume.

Mr. McNamee said that the war has left the older people left in the farms, who with their young boys and girls have worked harder and produced more. Thousands of men and women, he said, have come from the farms to the cities.

He said that the war has helped Canada's war effort in the home front. Older men and women, he said, will probably not be called to the front line, but they will be needed in the home front.

Apprenticeship Training Plan Established by Dominion Government

Mr. Humphrey, Minister of Labour, announced that in Order of Council approved recently gives authority to the Department of Labour to extend financial assistance to Provincial Governments, in order to establish an apprenticeship training program. The subject is provided for in the Industrial Training Act. For the fiscal year 1944-45, the Dominion Government has made available for distribution among the provinces a sum of $1,000,000. This sum will be raised by a loan of $1,000,000 from the federal government. The plan is designed to supplement regular industrial apprenticeship training. Apprentices, while working at their trade, will be subject to working conditions and wages determined by the local union. Each apprentice must administer his share of the fund in an apprenticeship fund, and the fund is to be used to assist apprentices in their education, and to assist in their employment.

● When a gun goes into action every man has a job to do. Seconds count, and team work gets results.

Training... gets efficiency that makes each man part of a perfect machine.

That something more than efficiency is needed to make a top-rank fighting unit. There must be loyalty... that mark of responsibility that each man feels toward his mates.

We've got efficiency on the farm front... we're producing more, and with less help to do it. Keep up the teamwork that will make each one of us go all out to support our men on the fighting fronts.

We too, are part of a fighting unit... citizens of a nation at war. We must not let our men on the fighting fronts down.

Invaction means high tension on the fighting fronts... combined operations... through team work in every detail. And that call for greater action comes back to us at home. We have a job to do here, too. We must all buy Victory Bonds. We have a responsibility to our mates on the firing line. We can't let them down.

And the job that we are asked to do is... save more, and lend more to our country. We are asked to let our country have the use of money that we do not need now. We will have the money later on to improve our farms and to buy stock and equipment; for new buses and autos; for new furnishings and conveniences for our homes.

Be ready to buy more Victory Bonds.

Farm Implement Redesigns Can Production Up

Total tonnage of farm machinery production in 1944 will be approximately one-third the tonnage manufactured during 1940 and 1941, according to R.H. Blom, president of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. This will be no restriction on production of spare parts for farm machinery.

The tonnage devoted to the 1944 manufacturing program will be confined to repairs of machinery essential to Canada's production of livestock and foodstuffs.

Mr. Blom pointed out that Canadian manufacturers are being asked to produce equipment essential to the war effort. Canada will be asked to produce equipment for the United Nations program, the administrator stated.

Mr. Blom pointed out that increased output in 1945 does not indicate that demand for all types and varieties of agricultural equipment can be filled. Rationing will continue to be necessary and the most urgent and essential items will be the first to be rationed.

Lease Coupon Traffic

Canada exchanges of rationed commodities are being controlled by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. The board has issued a new coupon which will allow persons to obtain rationed goods and services. The board has also issued a new coupon which will allow persons to obtain rationed goods and services.

What do you expect out of a can of Paint?

Most of all you expect redness, fast drying. Then you expect coverage and hiding capacity. Next of all you expect wear, something that will stand up against weather and fire. And finally, you expect a paint that will give you the most for your money.

There are many brands of paint. Some are good, some are bad. Some are cheap, some are expensive. Some are easy to use, some are difficult. Some are long-lasting, some are short-lasting. Some are good for the money, some are not.

Bank Act Gives Aid To Farmers

Modernization and electrification of farm homes should be one of Canada's major post-war objectives. The Minister of Agriculture, Mr. J. A. Thivierge, has announced that the Government will provide financial assistance to farmers for the modernization and electrification of their homes.

Among the changes is a new provision to permit chartering of banks to finance farm improvements, such as new irrigation systems, modernization of farm homes, drainage and house programs.

To encourage banks to make loans for this purpose he said the Government will guarantee the loans. Maximum interest rate is 8 per cent simple interest.

Through this new procedure Mr. Thivierge said, "we should be making a real contribution to the reduction in the price of farm machinery and to the economic condition of the farm industry."

Mr. Thivierge said that the Government will also provide financial assistance to farmers for the modernization and electrification of their homes. This will be done through the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

The future of wheat growing in the prairie provinces depends principally on the ability of the farmer to produce a high quality product. The Government is doing its best to help the farmer in this regard.

Mr. Thivierge said that the Government will also provide financial assistance to farmers for the modernization and electrification of their homes. This will be done through the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

Jet-Propelled Aircraft

LONDON: (Press dispatch) A jet-propelled aircraft, highly experimental and critical test planes say they are easily flown, very responsive to controls, and the high-speed jet power units are easy to maintain and operate in operation that is better than in other types.

Their advantages are many according to the men who fly them. To begin with, the power produced is applied directly, there is no transmission gear or conversion mechanism. Thus the power plant is simplified, weight is considerably reduced and less friction is involved. Then it does not need high grade aviation gas as fuel. Power, almost as far as can be used in its stand and so-called safety factor can be used without any loss of efficiency. There is no complicated supercharger, with gear shafts, etc. with its low control and a simple fuel-injection system is required. Also the vibration is reduced, the aircraft is streamlined saving further weight and reducing consumption. Practically all that with the coming of the British turbine, the design of future aircraft will be revolutionized. Turbines are being used in motor cars, high speed, high altitude passenger aircraft. It is for the long range jet planes now being planned.

It is through jet power that the jet-propelled aircraft is being developed. The jet-propelled aircraft is being developed in the United States, Canada, and other countries. Town Beautification Credit must be extended to the Town Council for the beautification of St. Paul by planting a substantial number of ash and poplar trees on various streets and avenues.

It is hoped, however, that agreements will not stop there, the problem of suitable material around the town might be a subject for discussion. The lumbered on railway avenue, launched and eventually a complete system of a variety of trees is required. Also the vibration is reduced, the aircraft is streamlined saving further weight and reducing consumption. First Canadian Boys' Town

In November 1941, the pastor of St. Paul, Alberta, called upon to witness the conversion of four young men from his district. A few days later, two more lads were introduced to the pastor. All were apparently good boys. Why should they now be brought to the pastor? And how could a pastor of the reformation improve the manners and morality of the unfortunate youth?

With such considerations in mind, Father Meunier visited the converts in the home and had lengthy chats with all of them. His own eyes were filled with joy and vision of the past. As a missionary, he had been ordered to preach the gospel and to better in return, wisdom, devotion, honor and joy. One day, he was even commissioned to prepare a dynamic and splendid young man to face the world and the world beyond. Now he was being introduced to other youths living in the first of a new era, although they were not really bad boys but could be helped to become a part of a new society. Had society exhausted all efforts to prevent juvenile delinquency? Was there not a service mission that could make up for lost time, relationships, inadequate or faulty parental influence, lack of parental supervision, due to disruption of home life and to absence of parents left behind on the farm while the boy was in town, completing his education?

In Montreal, Father Meunier assumed the founder of Canadian Boys' Town which struggled to solve youth problems and reduce juvenile delinquency. He had studied the methods of Father Leo A. and was well acquainted with his social institutions and homes. Later on, the starting example of his conversion that something could be done for homeless and homeless boys, and that this should be done before it was too late.

His key task to the rectory, the pastor thought that this was his duty to do something for the boys. If he could interest the parishioners and friends in his project, together they could achieve a great work that would relieve parents, governments and society from a tremendous headache juvenile delinquency.

To prevent delinquency and—occasionally—to remove a delinquent from the scene of the situation contemplated for the Canadian Boys' Town.

The First Canadian Boys' Town

Committee of business men and professional were organized to assist the authorities of Boys' Town in the financing and equipping of the young in Canada. We find deeply interested in the Knight of Columbus who, from the very beginning, has been heartily backed and has given a great impetus to the movement. DO YOU KNOW that you become a partner in the ownership of this creamery through your cream shipments, and that you share in all surplus earnings over operating costs on the basis of the butterfat you ship?

DO YOU KNOW that producers who ship to a private creamery help pay for that creamery but never own it? Nor do they receive the earnings made from the handling of their cream.

Over The Top Again

Again the Town of St. Paul has gone over the top. Victory Lane objective. Thanks to the hard-working volunteers. H. H. Brown, and also thanks to the many subscribers who have supported him.

The many volunteer districts have also given good support to the cause. They have helped to keep the overall quota up to the top again.

Children's Safety?

Many complaints have come to hand on the way the school children rush out into the streets when school lets out. With it a very real condition of the last few days, it is indeed thought that we had no accidents of children being hit by cars. Let us have the children play a safe game with the motorcars. Why not have the school institute a "Student Police" body to keep children off the streets except at intersections and these crossings could be controlled by the "Student Police". Let's play safe before it is too late. Accidents will happen. Some of our children are in the streets. Let's play safe before it is too late.

Silent Bidder

The people that listened to "Silent Bidder" who was a child education and an volunteer home is something very important as a cure for our child problem. Bidding his experience. Silent Bidder. Consider him in the field, moved to the U.S. with his dad at the age of 12, where his mother died shortly after. The second marriage his father failed to keep the home together by the selfishness of the stepmother.

Having run away from home with his two brothers they started a crime career, and were known as the Pennsylvania Bidder Kid. Confined as a reformer for a while only to escape to St. Paul over the weekend must have made a very good impression. Finally landing up in Sing Sing prison on a life sentence. Many have already been discharged for various reasons, but many more are still in the service, and it is their duty to prepare for the future. The first step is to get a good education, and then to get a good job. The second step is to get a good home, and then to get a good family. The third step is to get a good life, and then to get a good death.

Canada's economic and political relations with the United States are remarkably close. The two countries share a common border, and the United States is Canada's largest trading partner. The two countries also share a common language, and the United States is Canada's largest source of investment capital. The two countries are also members of the same international organizations, including the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) and the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD). The close relationship between the two countries is a result of their shared history, geography, and economic interests.

RECENTLY, a group of specialists from the U.S. Army at Fort Bragg, N.C., were conducting a series of experiments that involved placing a soldier in a dark, confined space with a double-breasted jacket and a pair of pants. The soldier was then placed in a mid-air position, and the experiment was repeated several times. The results of the experiment were that the soldier was able to maintain a steady position in the air for a period of time. This was a significant achievement, as it demonstrated that a soldier could be trained to perform such a task. The experiment was conducted as part of a larger study on the effectiveness of various training methods. The results of the study will be used to develop new training programs for soldiers. The experiment was a success, and it was a testament to the skill and dedication of the soldiers involved. Control of Wild Oats
Numerous attempts have been made to control wild oats by the use of herbicides. The importance of wild oats has been a little overlooked in the past. One of the most serious weeds in the spring and summer crops of the province may be controlled by the use of herbicides.

To Prairie Pioneers and Ancient Egypt
Harvesting was equally as hard and slow
Today a single man can cut and thresh 50 acres per day

Through thousands of years of harvesting from the dawn of agriculture to the present, man has used many methods of harvesting. The sickle of ancient Egypt had only prepared to cut the wheat when the first curved wooden threshing machine was used from the Great Lakes.

On the Continent, however, man has not been so slow to challenge the modern machine. The reaper was born, then came the binder and every farmer would own one. Today, with a modern self-propelled combine one man can cut and thresh 50 acres in a single day—and do so in a vast field of wheat.

Up to a century ago the farmer was still the "King of the Soil." For him, the soil was the source of his wealth. He was a man of the soil, and his wealth was in the soil. He was a man of the soil, and his wealth was in the soil.

Water System on the Farm
In the opinion of H. C. Stephenson, Agricultural Engineer for the Alberta Department of Agriculture, planning for the farm house is one of the most important projects in any farm improvement program.

The kitchen range pump, the simplest and cheapest method by which the required water pressure can be secured, will cost about $125.00. This pump may be used where the water is not more than 20 feet below the surface. The pump may be connected to a hot water heater to produce a single hot and cold water system. The cost of the water heater and water tank will be about $25.00 to $35.00. With a kitchen sink costing from $10 to $15.00, and some good water system will cost from $50.00 to $60.00 for the materials.

These desirable installations should be made at the beginning, in fact, the complete water system should be planned, not piecemeal. It is not a good idea to add to the system as time and money will allow. It should be remembered that when the bathroom and kitchen are close together, the plumbing will be required, and the cost will be reduced. The bathroom should be either on the other side of the kitchen wall from where the sink is placed, or in a room directly above the kitchen. Bathroom fixtures will cost from $125.00 to $150.00 for equipment. These should be installed by a competent plumber since installation of the sink is quite considerable.

Pre-Bred Case of Bovine
Several reports are being received by the Livestock Branch with reference to weak calves and heifers born to purebred cattle. It is to be remembered, says A. J. Charnock, Livestock Supervisor, the breeders are receiving better attention during the pregnancy period.

The very first calf will not produce the desired large and even litter. Too much barley and wheat should not be fed and the sow should be forced to exercise by leading it to the trough. The lack of vitamins A, B, and C in the feed will result in the birth of dead or very weak pigs. To prevent this condition the feeding of very green corn silage is recommended.

Malnutrition in young pigs is caused by lack of vitamins in the diet of the sow. Indica can be readily given in the form of potassium iodide. One ounce

FARMERS look to the FUTURE

MECHANIZATION AND THE FUTURE

By Mr. L. B. Thompson
St. Paul - Alberta

It is the fourth of a series of comments by the well-known speaker, written especially for the Weekly Press of Western Canada.

Mechanization will win the war and mechanization will win the peace. The statement has been made many times in the past, and it is true with agriculture as it is in the major task of winning the war.

Due to the fact that the war has been going on for so long, the farmer has been able to keep his head down and his hands busy. He has been able to keep his head down and his hands busy.

Key in International Portation Of Future

There is said Mr. McGeorge to have a sound basis for the development of an air transport industry in Canada peculiar to Canadian needs. In the immediate post-war period we may expect a considerable expansion of services into the outlying areas of the country, small freighter lines and services of the nature of those played an increasingly important part in the development of Canada. Air expansion of mail-line interurban service may be expected including possibly the carrying of passengers.

Operating cost must be reduced he said before the airlines could obtain a larger share of cargo and express traffic. "And operating costs are pared the contribution of the air transport industry to the national economy will exceed materially the financial return of the airline operator. Out of every dollar that TCA spends for wages, materials, fuel and airport, approximately thirteen cents

It is possible today to fly from New York to Chicago in thirty hours, from Australia to San Francisco in thirty-five hours. Aircraft now in the draughting boards or in peacocks of assembly will dwarf present day equipment in range and carrying capacity.

We are re-discovering geography in terms of time rather than distance," said Mr. McCrea. "Now, on this surface is known that sixty hours distant from any such other. These times will be with him on made several and ways to during were lost in years and the nations of the world and their peoples will be brought closer together. Canada has a definite part to fill in international air transportation. We have geography on our side, our military aviation has a reputation second to none and our aspirations are not in kind upon with suspicion as is so often said. The fact that the British are doing a job one of the great powers.

The Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of finance, said in a speech last night, while a report was being made by the vice president, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, that the British and the United States are working together to secure the Pacific T.F.C. is prepared to play its part in the mind of the British people. The future of the British people is in the hands of the British people.

Should Be Remembered

British New Year's Eve. All the things that have happened in the past year, making a new year's resolution. It is suggested now that British people, who are now in the United States, should be remembered for their contribution to the world. But we are sensitive only to the need for mutual understanding. We are not only a people of the world, but we are a people of the world.

Once And having said that, let us get the situation in its right perspective. We need to look at things in a different way.

Let's Get Together.
CANADIANS

Let us, as Canadians, resolve to put aside sectionalism and class hatred, and to recognize the political and fraternal gains of playing off one group against another; let us require of the Government that it harmonize the various interests of the community and to foster a vigorous, co-operative society for the betterment of all.

Standards Of Public Health

The American Lung Association has found that OGDEN'S cigarettes are the most palatable and least irritating to the throat.

PUBLIC HEALTH LISTS are one of the most distressing features of war and the prevention of large-scale suffering and loss of life is perhaps the greatest motive underlying efforts to establish permanent peace. The problem of finding an assembly figure for the number of deaths is frequently drawn to the fact that the number of claims civilians have is numbers exceeding those of both military and naval deaths. It is claimed that there is a need of increased public interest in this aspect of the national welfare. Public health research and medical research further extension of medical services and higher standards of nutrition are among the measures necessary to combat disease and to bring about a reduction of the civilian death-rate. These measures require large expenditures of public funds and they also require widespread interest and support on the part of the people.

Canadians New Live Longer

It is estimated that the people of Canada spend approximately one billion dollars a year through doctors, but health authorities are of the opinion that fifty per cent of this cost could be reduced by one-half the savings in the people's lives.

During the past fifty years, great progress has been made here in combating disease if these efforts are continued and expanded, we may look for even greater improvement along these lines in the future. In Canada during the last half century, the average length of life has been extended by the order of twenty years. The infant mortality rate has been steadily reduced. At this time too, many of the diseases which formerly claimed a large number of lives each year, have been brought under control, or completely stamped out.

Great Progress Has Been Made

While immunisation for disease has practically been achieved so that it has not occurred for as long as fifteen years. Pasteurisation of milk is believed to eliminate the spread of such diseases as typhoid, boracic taster, rubella, spleen fever and many diseases contributing to infant mortality. In areas where pasteurisation is compulsory, the frequency of these diseases has been greatly decreased. In 1967 there has been an improvement in the percentage of the population immunised against measles from 1.112 to 1.113. From 1966 to 1967 while in 1963 the deaths from this disease numbered 168. With continued interest and support on the part of health authorities and the public, the DE BEERS, THE. W. H. C. Canada, report to a foremost place among the nations of the world. The rapid advance made in the production of food and manufactured articles, in shipping on service medicine and many other things of endeavour were very great when considered in relation to the state of the population here. These results were achieved because the entire country was organized for the purpose of giving the fullest support to the war effort. The production of goods and services was so organized that it was considered impossible to accomplish in the interests of speeding victory. When difficulties arose in production, transportation or other vital places, expert advice was obtained and remedies were quickly provided. These methods, which proved so effective in war, should be equally useful in dealing with peacetime problems, many of which have already appeared in the form of the housing shortage, unemployment and the world food shortage.

The British celebration in London of the victory of the coalition forces was speedily being mentioned as safeguarding communications and the recovery of essential raw materials. It is specified that the first-degree war materials were to be sent to the United States if rendered indispensable. As the United States did not want these materials returning to them and the British government was aware of this, there are to be damaged only in the sea. Only the British ships are to be recalled to the United States.

Co-operation in Education

THESE WERE THE FACTS OF LIFE which were affected by the German occupation of Europe, and the lack of schooling the original condition of all children here. The first step was to get the children out of the hands of the enemy, and to get them into the hands of the British. This was done in 1941 by the British Government, and the children were sent to the United Kingdom. The British Government then took care of them, and they were educated in the United Kingdom. This was a great success, and it showed that co-operation in education was possible.

EQUALIZATION OF EDUCATION

THE ROAD FOR THE REALIZATION of educational opportunities is frequently thought of as the province of the state and few realize that the realization of the right to education is a task which falls upon the citizen as well as the state. The state has the duty to provide the framework for the realization of the right to education, but the citizen has the duty to make the most of the opportunities which the state provides.

FINANCIALS ARE AN OBSTACLE to the realization of the right to education. The state has the duty to provide the framework for the realization of the right to education, but the citizen has the duty to make the most of the opportunities which the state provides.

PRESENT OUTLET is not sufficient. The state has the duty to provide the framework for the realization of the right to education, but the citizen has the duty to make the most of the opportunities which the state provides.

How do you feel today? The state has the duty to provide the framework for the realization of the right to education, but the citizen has the duty to make the most of the opportunities which the state provides.

The King's Relations With The Dominions Since They Acquired Equality Of Status

By the Hon. Mr. Justice Gauthier
The King's relations with the dominions since they acquired equality of status have been a subject of much interest and discussion. The King's position as a constitutional monarch has been maintained, but his powers have been reduced to a purely ceremonial role. The dominions have gained a greater degree of self-government, and the King's role has been reduced to that of a symbol of unity and continuity.

Great Resources Of Hard Coal Sold To Be Lying Almost Unused In Peace River Canyon

By the Hon. Mr. Justice Gauthier
The great resources of hard coal lying in the Peace River Canyon have been a subject of much interest and discussion. The coal is of high quality and in large quantities, but it has been almost unused. The government has been slow to develop the resources, and the private sector has been reluctant to invest in the industry.

A Challenge For The Future

THE MONTHS WHICH HAVE FOLLOWED the end of the war have been difficult to what it had hoped they might be. The world had indeed followed to pieces as a time when life would settle again into normal channels, but events which have taken place during the past year cannot be considered to be encouraging. War-torn nations, serious distress and continued disagreement and misunderstanding among nations who a short time ago were treaty allies in a common cause have marked the past months, and continue today have little resemblance to the post-war world which was so eagerly awaited. This time which events have taken has led many people to become cynical and pessimistic in regard to the future and there is indeed ample cause for such an attitude at this time.

Nevertheless, there is danger in such a kind of thought and people should, instead of losing heart, maintain faith in the future and do all that they can to support those forces which are working for a better world. In spite of the fact that so many millions of desperate people in high positions in every life are doing their utmost to deal wisely with the overwhelming problems of these times, and to secure the peace for which we paid so dearly in life and materials. And our attitude here, however and whatever we would have here, and the way in which we allow the situation to develop now, we may well lose the peace. It was courage and determination on the part of the people of all the nations which made possible the victory and it is apparent that these qualities are needed now as much, if not more, than they were during the war.

It is natural that the individual citizen should feel that there is little he can do about such widespread problems as famine, poverty, and international tension, but if all the people interested themselves actively in the affairs of the day, and made their opinions felt they might help to some degree at least, to obtain control of events. Canada, it would be interesting to know what percentage of the people know the names of their representatives in Parliament and the Provincial Legislatures. In rural communities the percentage might be fairly high, but there would undoubtedly be many in all parts of the country who have little idea of their representatives and have little interest in them. If we wished to do so, the people could make known through their representatives their opinions in regard to the food crisis, labor trouble and other problems which affect the public welfare. Many legislators have stated that they welcome suggestions of citizens from the people, but they have not always followed up on them. If the people of the country, instead of being passive and accepting the policy of the government, would make their opinions known, they might prevent the future, the people should take up the challenge to work through every possible means to build the kind of a world for which the war was fought and won.

Average Cows Secured Ten To Fifteen Gallons of Water Per Day

Vegetarians everywhere are aware of the fact that the highest production of milk is the consequence of a continuous supply of drinking water for the new-born calf or animal. Experiments in Canada, United States, Russia and other countries have shown that milk production is directly proportional to the quantity of water available to the animal. It is well known that a cow who had access to water only once a day would produce only one-half as much milk as a cow who had access to water every day.

It is estimated that the average milk cow in the United States consumes water per day. High production records show that cows producing more than 10 gallons of milk per day may consume up to 100 gallons of water per day. Where dry cows are used, the consumption of water is even greater.

Armies Of Invaders Have Ransacked Palestine For Many Thousands Of Years

THE villages of Palestine have been razed, burned or merely arrested by the armée of invading, occupying or mandatory powers for the sake of years so there was nothing unusual in the search by the British Second Infantry Brigade of the Jewish fishing village of Netat Yam. Nothing very unusual that is unless you are impressed by the fact that it was the first time in Palestine that dogs, trained to sniff buried metal objects, were used by searchers.

The dyke is of sand concrete 135 feet wide and extending 1,300 feet into the land from the waters of Southampton. It has a capacity of 10,000,000 gallons of water at high spring tides and is completed.

Named for King George V and opened in July 1933 primarily to accommodate the Queen Elizabeth, the vessel, after the Queen Mary, the largest passenger ship in the world, was built for the Southern Railway of England as a house afloat for 100 royal tons.

I for one agree with our farmers that these price disparities, or discriminating against wheat growers, are neither fair nor just. They should therefore be immediately corrected. The government can remove these discriminations overnight. Why don't they?

Firestone EXTRA POWER BATTERIES

The "big brother" in Firestone's new line of batteries is the new, revolutionary, extra power battery. A new, specially "power packed" engineering and new battery design. Here, power is upped for additional one month starting life. The extra power of the new battery means greater car life. Larger, charge-retaining, chambers. The new line of batteries is the most powerful and longest lasting power. And the patented P-I-B-Matic covers automatically prevent over-filling and overcharge.

A Different Objective

One of the most things that men do is to accept a habit. As the world's first and greatest newspaper, we have accepted the habit of being a newspaper. We have accepted the habit of being a newspaper. We have accepted the habit of being a newspaper.

Naturally, when these men of Canada Savings Bank, we must accept the habit of being a newspaper. We have accepted the habit of being a newspaper. We have accepted the habit of being a newspaper.

But another year, some Canadian sets up his objective this time. Canada Savings Bank has been his help a man like himself.

The Messages Of Freer Trade

Mr. Hugh Dalton, Chancellor of the Exchequer for the British Labour government on September 24, 1939, in a speech at Ottawa, Canada, in which he attempted to get multi-lateral trade working, said that the various people might be the best way to get it, in much freer world trade.

On August 14, before the House of Commons, Mr. Alexander, one of Britain's official spokesmen, said that the British government is determined to bring about a freer world trade.

David MacEachern, Pioneer Resident Of Glendon Passes Away

By Mallie Correspondent

It was with much regret that we learned from our Glendon correspondent of the death of David MacEachern. He was one of the pioneer settlers in Glendon district and bore his full share of public duties as he was reeve of Adamton M. D., chairman of Willowgrove school division and a justice of the peace and owner of marriage licenses all over a long period. A native of Glasgow and a very well educated man, who travelled through the old country before he came to Canada, he was surprised to find that away up in the Highlands of Scotland they read the book "The Man From Glengarry," in fact, had it in public libraries. The author of the book was the late Rev. Dr. Gordon of Winnipeg, who wrote under the name of Hugh Cameron. Mrs. MacEachern predeceased him several years ago, she was a sister of Professor McLean of the Bank University. His body was taken home to his native Glengarry by his brother Professor MacEachern, long Dean of the University of Alberta.

Only last summer we spent a very pleasant afternoon with him in Glendon when he was in a comatose state. He reminded me that we ourselves were so much to blame as Glendon was in its railway not being completed through to the west. The engineer in charge was a personal friend of his from school days, and he did not want the railway to go south-west from Orléville through St. Paul and Elk Point. The original survey was straight east from Orléville past the South end of Lake St. Vincent, there, according to the engineer, was an ideal location for a town, a large deep lake with good water and sailing with fish, a regular summer resort. Then the survey went on and, a little north of the present hamlet of St. Vincent, and continued in a north-east direction on a good scale grade with no large hills. St. Paul and Elk Point put up a strong kick and had the survey diverted south-west. The line was condemned by the engineer because the water was bad, the drainage was poor and the rolling terrain out of Elk Point was going to make the cost prohibitive. However they made their objection. Mr. MacEachern claimed that we up north were to blame for not objecting to the survey being changed. Several old time observers with me today, had the original survey maps adhered to, and line would suffice the north-east part of province, and we would have bigger and better towns, and the line would have been through long ago. Yes, and now our good friends in St. Paul would have no water problem.

The death of David MacEachern has taken back to us memories that passing of years does not dim.

MAILING NEWS

Steve and Louis Vail and his Laurie are home on Christmas and New Year vacation.

Christmas was celebrated in a quiet fashion—the boys are quiet, but they are busy. It had to be since the medicine of the boys' lives was in St. Paul in their vacation.

Mrs. Yvette Maguire was taken to hospital before Christmas and we all miss her gentle smile so much.

Miss Patricia also went home for Christmas to Adamton, and the two boys are so busy, they have not even time to mail.

Wishing all our readers a Happy, Prosperous New Year.

ST. LAKE NEWS

Victor Lussan, Richmond Lussan, and Andrew Vail have returned home for the Xmas holidays.

Miss Yvette Maguire has returned home from hospital.

Wedding bells will soon be ringing, to better hurry and share your share.

WEDDING

At a quiet ceremony conducted in the United Church mansion, St. Paul, at 2 p.m. on Saturday, December 28, Miss Wilhelmina Lussan became the bride of Leonard Grant of Grand Prairie.

Life Insurance

Life insurance companies pay more to Canadians during 1946 totalled about $145,000,000 more than in 1945. The reason for this was the greater number of which were living policyholders, and the fact that the Canadian Life Insurance Officers Association is a New Year statement today.

Mr. McDonald reviewed the operations of the life insurance industry during the past year—the 1946 year of the first Canadian Company—and predicted healthy business conditions for the future during 1947.

The traditional desire of Canadians for freedom of choice in a place to live either goods or services is reflected in a greater degree probably in the record of the life insurance industry in this country than in that of any other business enterprise.

Wonder Drugs Saved More Lives Than War Explosives Killed

PROGRESS has been slow in the field of nuclear energy, although it is one of such great significance that it has been the subject of the atomic bomb jet-propelled flame thrower and new forms of deadly and more destructive explosives. D. G. Jamieson declared in addressing the St. James Library recently in Montreal: "The atomic bomb is one of the worst evils that has befallen the world. The atomic bomb is one of the worst evils that has befallen the world. The atomic bomb is one of the worst evils that has befallen the world."

planes killed thousands of soldiers but malaria alone has saved tens of thousands from malaria and death. When thousands of soldiers might have died from the effects of bombs and shell, blood plasma saved them. When thousands of others would have died from dirt and weathering

Another trial was done in which the patients had been made with the persistence of ataxine for the treatment of malaria when the Ataxine supply of quinine had been exhausted and 100 patients having demonstrated advantages over quinine in the treatment of malaria and for a while treatment was reduced during the war to six cents (compared to many the referred were Vitamin D for the treatment of arthritis and the allied disease brands for the treatment of bone and muscle conditions.

In addition, Mr. Jansky predicted that we are right on the threshold of learning about atomic energy in the field of medicine.
